A VIEW FROM THE PULPIT

Everyone's work will be put through the fire so that all can see whether or not it keeps its value, and what was really accomplished.

I Corinthians 3:13

Perhaps you remember this little story. Whose Job is it? This is the story about four people named everybody, somebody, anybody and nobody. There was an important job to be done so everybody was sure somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that because it was everybody's job. Everybody thought anybody could do it, but nobody realized that everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that everybody blamed somebody when nobody did what anybody would have done.

Have you ever ignored a job that needed to be done simply because it was not your assigned task? How many times have we allowed ourselves to get upset because no one had emptied the dishwasher, or picked up papers scattered all over the living room, or folded laundry that had been piled high on my bed?

If we approach daily tasks with the idea that it doesn't matter whether the job belongs to everybody, somebody, anybody, or nobody, but what matters is that the job gets done, then perhaps we'd be more apt just to pitch in and do it right then and there.

Today could we find One task that's not really our job and do it anyway with a smile and without expecting any praise or even any gratitude for doing it. And tomorrow let's do the same. If it gets to be a habit just imagine what we could accomplish in a year's time!

Rev. George Walton, Stated Supply Pastor

The Bazaar has been postponed until October 8th due to the weather. Remember set-up will occur on the 7th at 2 pm.

FALL

Anticipation of the cooler temperatures of Fall moving in, has given me renewed energy. With opened doors and windows and the porch swing.

The birds' songs are preparing us for beautiful days ahead.

The ladies at Buffalo have been busy preparing events through Thanksgiving. Pricing donations that are coming in for the Bazaar have kept the ladies up on preparations before the Big Day. The ladies have also been busy baking. Pat has been up to her canning now for months. This will be a very "fruitful" event. The tables and tents will be set up on the last day of the month and upon opening, we will have coffee and donuts and the crowds will be coming to see what they cannot pass up. Being outside seems to draw bigger crowds from cars passing by. The fellowship of the workers is our reward for the many hours and work we dedicate ourselves to. These monies will also contribute to our missions.

Doing Gods work is so fulfilling. Believe that you can keep on going long after you think you can't. I also believe that heroes are the people who do what has to be done when it needs to be done, regardless of the work or the consequences. So, as we prepare to welcome a new month, lets put on our best armour and face each new day with a pleasant and thankful attitude with energy to get er' done.

Show God that we have him as our King and we are faithful to all that he calls us to do. Expect great things from God. Attempt great things for God. Amen

In His Love,
Jan Renwick
